Memorial Day – Honoring The Heroes!

Some call them our “Fallen Heroes”, but I am not so sure that FALLEN is the right word to describe someone who took a STAND. I know, I know... FALLEN refers to DEATH... but their STAND wasn’t about DYING. No, it was about LIVING. Living a life with “LIBERTY AND JUSTICE FOR ALL. Not one soldier who ever takes to the battlefield, does so to FALL. They go to take a STAND. And that is what they did. They looked the enemy in the face and even stared death in the eye. But their vision was cast much higher than that. Their vision was cast on their hopes and dreams of a place where their family, and friends and fellow countrymen could LIVE in a FALLEN WORLD, that is yet FREE to worship and serve the Living God, without FEAR or RETRIBUTION. No.. my Heroes... our American soldiers are not FALLEN HEROES. Heroes they are... but FALLEN they are not! They are HEROES who STOOD so that you and I can STAND today in their HONOR... Together... WE WIN!
