Here Come The Holidays!

Ready or not, here they come! The Holidays!!! A gathering of family, celebration, a feast... it almost sounds like Heaven a little bit, doesn't it? I hope this holiday season will be like Heaven for everyone. It is a wonderful time to share Jesus with someone, it anticipation of them receiving the greatest gift ever given and proclaiming the most worthy of all things to be thankful for! This week, as you gather around the Thanksgiving table, thank God in advance for the many people who will grace your path that he has entrusted you to tell about Jesus. And then determine to go forth with determination in your heart to give the gift that just keeps on living – The Gift of Jesus Christ! What better way to brighten someone's day??!!?

Don't Worry – Be Happy!

Standing UP, When The Storms Are Bearing Down!
